Dear SEU Community,

It is hard to believe we are almost through the summer. It’s great to see residential students back on campus. As President Streubert said earlier this week, thank you to everyone who has helped make the transition to fall 2020 possible.

A few reminders as we head into September:

- Classes move to a hybrid model, which includes in-person and remote instruction, on Monday, September 7 and run through Wednesday, November 25, with no fall break. (Classes will be held on Labor Day and on Columbus Day, October 12.) Masks and social distancing will continue to be required once in-person learning begins.

- The Park Avenue entrance remains closed until further notice. Beginning on September 7, ID cards will no longer be necessary to enter campus between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m.

- Requests from students who want to remain remote for the semester must be made by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, August 28. Once you declare the choice of remote learning, only under special circumstances will you be able to revert to in-person instruction. There will be no adjustment in tuition for remote learning. To request remote learning, go to www.steu.edu/remoterequest.

- All faculty, students and staff are required to obtain new ID cards, please make an appointment at www.steu.edu/idappointment.

- Students are required to download the #CampusClear app from the Apple or Android store, log on and answer each question first thing every morning. The fast pass clear symbol must be presented, upon request, to a faculty or staff member.

- Students also are asked to sign the Health Honor Code pledging to “Protect Myself, Protect Others and Protect the Community.”

- Faculty and Staff are reminded to submit the Daily Self Checklist each morning before coming to campus and the Daily Contact Tracing form before leaving. Bookmark the following URLs on your devices:

- An updated version of the Return to Campus Policy and Procedures is available on the Human Resources web page.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding as we continue to move through the start of the fall 2020 semester.
