As an evaluation of their one-the-job performance, student interns from the College of Saint Elizabeth (CSE) are evaluated multiple times by their co-operative teachers who supervise their work in the schools. 100% of CSE student interns were evaluated as Proficient or Advanced Proficient by the teachers who were responsible for supervising them.